

Instructions

This packet includes all the forms necessary to file with the court. Every petitioner who does not have a felony conviction or adjudicated as a juvenile delinquent must submit the following forms:

1. JDF 433 – Petition: This is the document that initiates your case; basically, it is you asking the Court to order your name change.
2. JDF 426 – Order for Publication: This is the document the judge used to instruct you to publish the name change in the county's legal newspaper
3. JDF 427 – Public Notice of Petition for Change of Name: This is the document that you will, if required, provide to the newspaper as part of the publication requirement.
4. JDF 448 – Final Decree for Change of Name: This is the end result. This signed document means that the petitioner's name has been legally changed. Use this document to update records.

Also required but not a part of this process are the FBI & CBI Background Checks:

- If the person seeking to change their name is 14 years old or older, fingerprints and FBI & CBI background checks are required. We recommend using Colorado Fingerprinting , but you may find out more on CNCP's website: www.namechangeproject.org Include the FBI and CBI results as Exhibit A to JDF 433.
